

QUT-NCAS offers PhD scholarships

QUT is located in Brisbane, Australia, and invites applications from permanent university academics in Sri Lanka for the QUT and NCAS PhD scholarship program.

- You will receive a full tuition fee sponsorship valued at approximately AUD $100 000 over three years, provided by QUT
- Living allowance of at least AUD $19,830 each year for three years, airfares to Australia and overseas health cover costs are provided by National Centre for Advance Studies (NCAS) in Sri Lanka.

Applications are open from 23 March, 2017. The closing date is 25 July, 2017.

Entry qualifications:

- Permanent members of academic staff of universities under the Grants Commission of Sri Lanka
- Master degree with minimum research component of 25% or a four year Bachelor degree with Honours 1st or 2nd class
- Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 5.5 on a 7-point scale or equivalent.

In addition to the above requirements, all applicants should satisfy the general guidelines of the NCAS postgraduate grant scheme.

Priority areas include:

- Business
- Management
- Creative arts
- Economics
- Law
- Mathematics
- Statistics
- Education

Other areas of interest will also be considered.

Visit www.ncas.ac.lk to download the application form and view proposed study topics and detailed selection criteria.

For more information about QUT, visit www.qut.edu.au/international

National Centre for Advanced Studies in Humanities & Social Sciences (NCAS)

NCAS, which was established under Ordinance No. 2 of 2005 in terms of Section 24A of the Universities Act No. 16 of 1978, is home for research and intellectual interaction in the fields of Humanities and Social Sciences. It promotes reflective thinking, innovation, creativity and original discoveries among the academics.

As the premier grant awarding body of the Ministry of Higher Education, NCAS has so far provided financial assistance to over 300 academics to pursue their postgraduate studies locally and overseas.

NCAS regularly conducts training workshops for academics on research methodology and related fields. NCAS hosts an Intranet at its site, and provides e-library resource facilities to researchers.

Australia's first business school with triple international accreditation

a university for the real world®